| Year 4 |   | This modern fairy-tale with a brilliantly inspiring young heroine is one of Roald Dahl's best loved stories. Full of magic and mischief, children will love witnessing Matilda pit her strength, courage and cool intelligence against the nasty and spiteful adults in her life, and ultimately coming out on top. After it was published in 1988, Matilda won the Children's Book Award from The Federation of Children's Book Groups, a charity group for childhood literacy in the United Kingdom. This award is given out every year for books that were voted to be the best by kids themselves. |   | This is a spellbinding collection of poems about the oceans of the world and their shores. With this book, children can swim alongside dolphins and flying fish, pore over rockpools and sail from pole to pole and back, learning about everything from phosphorescence and plankton to manta rays and puffins. |
| Year 5 |   | Waterstones book of the year 2022!An instant classic with a bear-sized heart, Hannah Gold's debut novel is a touching story of kindness, adventure, and forging your own path.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |    | Cautionary Verses by Hilaire BellocAn hilarious classic anthology of moral instruction for children.                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Year 6 |  | Opportunity to revisit the topic of WW2.Shortlisted for the Blue Peter Award category, 'the book I couldn't put down' The Story of Adolphus Tips is told in a diary. It tells the story of one brave cat and movingly brings to life a true story of how a whole community got caught up in the Second World War. Adolphus Tips is no ordinary cat.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |  | A celebratory anthology of the best of Puffin poetry publishing, including poems by Roger McGough, Michael Rosen, Charles Causley, Benjamin Zephaniah, Jackie Kay, Spike Milligan, John Agard, Brian Patten, Allan Ahlberg and Kit Wright.                                                                       |
